1. Development and aims of the platform:

The trans-European platform “Memory Lab” brings together initiatives in the field of dealing with difficult pasts (wars, dictatorship) from different countries of Western/Central Europe and the Western Balkans. The aims of this informal platform are to deepen mutual knowledge, exchange experiences, build capacities, facilitate contacts and realize common projects. Its general purpose is to strengthen self-critical and constructive approaches of dealing with the past as part of civic education and democracy-building, and to contribute to the integration of the countries of the former Yugoslavia into a common European civil society and memory space. The platform is organized around an annual study trip and workshop. The project was launched, under the name “Dealing with difficult pasts in the Western Balkans and Western/Central Europe”, in June 2010 with a first workshop in Sarajevo, and continued in 2011 with a workshop in Prijedor, and a study trip to Jasenovac, Donja Gradina and Vukovar. In 2012, the next edition took place in France, including visits at the “Historial of the Great War” in Péronne, the “Mémorial de la Shoah” and of the village of Oradour-sur-Glane, and in 2013 the fourth study trip and workshop was organized in Germany (Berlin and Ravensbrück) and at the German-Polish border (Frankfurt/Oder and Slubice). - Several bilateral or multilateral cooperation and activities involving different participating organizations have resulted from these annual meetings.

For more information see: <http://www.memorylab-europe.eu/>

2. Target group:

40 representatives of memorial centers, historical museums, NGOs and other organizations/ initiatives from South Eastern Europe (especially Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, Kosovo, Macedonia and Serbia) on the one hand, and from Western and Central Europe (especially France and Germany) on the other hand, who are active in the field of dealing with difficult pasts (wars and dictatorships in Europe during the 20th century), especially around memory sites and in the educational field.

3. Study trip and workshop 2014 in Kosovo and Macedonia:

After France and Germany, the fifth edition of the annual study trip and workshop will return to South Eastern Europe and take place from 5th to 11th October 2014 in Kosovo and Macedonia. The specific aims of this study trip and workshop are:

- To explore and discuss current memorialization challenges in Kosovo and Macedonia related to the three following topics: Dealing with the communist past ; Dealing with the recent armed conflicts (Kosovo 1998/99, Macedonia 2001); Building of new collective identities (independent Kosovo, “Skopje 2014”).
- To connect the experiences from Kosovo and Macedonia with the situations and remembrance-work in other European countries
- To deepen contacts and cooperation and to provide a space to develop future activities between the participants of the platform
